Oktoberfest brings German food and brews to downtown A2

Two fine Ann Arbor restaurants are partnering this weekend to bring "Oktoberfest" to our city. Grizzly Peak and The Blue Tractor are hosting a German festival of good food and great beer as a benefit for the University of Michigan's Comprehensive Cancer Center. A $5 cover charge grants you entry into the festival, which runs from 6- midnight tonight (Friday, Sept. 18) and Saturday, Sept. 19.
