

Notes on the Napkin

- One of the best parts of the holiday is the variety of great holiday beers. For example, soon on tap at Grizzly Peak is Zwart Vandaan Bier (a Belgian black ale) and White Christmas White Ale, a fortified witbier. Meanwhile, at the Blue Tractor, 207 E. Washington, is Wassail Ale, another special holiday brew made with brown sugar and spices. Sounds better than eggnog!
- And speaking of Blue Tractor, every week in December the brewery is giving away a lifetime mug club membership to one lucky beer lover. Follow @a2bluetractor on Twitter and be the first to respond when they post the words "Mug Club Giveaway" and you win fabulous prizes.
- Retro-styled six-packs of North Peak bottled ales are now on store shelves in Ann Arbor. Read more about them here.

Once again, that's all the brews fit to pint, fellow beer lovers. See you on the other side of the food coma, livers rested and ready to plow through the finish line to 2010.

David Bardallis is a freelance writer and editor, blogger, bon vivant, and man about town. Visit his Web site, DavidBardallis.com, to engage his services or read his latest. Email your beer-related thoughts to annarborbeer@gmail.com.

Share this post

Tags: all the brews fit to pint, beer, david bardallis