REUSABLE KID ROCK GROCERY BAGS FOR EARTH DAY IN DETROIT

Thursday, April 22nd, 2010

In the spirit of Earth Day, Kid Rock, comedian Sandra Bernhard, singer Mayer Hawthorne and burlesque performer Dita Von Teese are donating shirts to help save the environment and give you some new reusable shopping bags courtesy of Royal Oak's 'AShirtBag'.

'AShirtBag' educates people about the damage disposable grocery bags cause to the environment and teaches other ways to include environment-friendly habits in your everyday life.

The organization will use proceeds from the celebrity bags to promote science and ecology programs in Detroit Public Schools.

The bags will be available for bidding on the official Ebay store of AShirtBag on Friday, April 23, 2010.
