Earth Day in Detroit: Get your hands on a reusable bag made from Kid Rock's shirt

By Jessica Nunez | MLive.com
April 22, 2010, 10:27AM

In the spirit of Earth Day, local celebrities are donating the shirts off their backs to help save the environment -- and give you some new shopping bags.

Kid Rock, comedian Sandra Bernhard, singer Mayer Hawthorne and burlesque performer Dita von Teese are among the Detroit celebs who have donated their tank tops to be made into reusable grocery bags by Royal Oak-based nonprofit AShirtBag.

AShirtBag educates children and others about the damage using disposable grocery bags does to the environment and teaches other ways to include environment-friendly habits in your everyday life.

The organization will use proceeds from the celebrity bags to promote science and ecology programs in Detroit Public Schools.

The bags will be revealed this evening from 6 to 8 p.m. at Pluto in Birmingham.

They will be available for bidding on ebay tomorrow.

Each bag will come with a custom tag autographed by the celebrity donor.

Bags like these, made from tank tops donated by celebrities such as Kid Rock and Mayer Hawthorne, will be on display tonight at Pluto in Birmingham.
