Auburn Hills

Free Internet available downtown this summer

Residents, businesses and visitors in downtown Auburn Hills will have free Internet access available this summer. City Council approved a bid by Netarx of Auburn Hills of $43,359 to create the wireless network. The bid includes all materials and labor. Twenty-three companies bid on the project, including AT&T. The system will have the capability to be expanded as future development and residents move into the downtown area.

BIRMINGHAM

Celebrity sale proceeds to go toward school programs

A showcase of donated Michigan celebrities' shirts that have been crafted into a reusable tote bag is 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. today at Pluto in Birmingham, 400 Hamilton Row. Each celebrity-donated bag will be available for bidding at myworld.ebay.com/ashirtbag on Friday. All of the proceeds raised from the sale of the celebrity bags will support AShirtBag's mission, to promote science and ecology programs in Detroit Public Schools. For more information, contact AShirtBag, at 800-915-9384 or visit www.ashirtbag.org. AShirtBag is located at 1331 Holden St. in Detroit. View AShirtBag's blog at www.ashirtbag.blogspot.com.
