Introducing: Chef Derik Watson

Oct 12, 2009 | E-mail | Print PDF

Chef Derik Watson!

Another new face has recently been brought on board at Iridescence in MotorCity Casino. Derik Watson has not only returned to his home state but to his former employer, Chef Don Yamauchi.

Watson and Yamauchi worked together at Tribute in Farmington Hills and show great promise for amazing collaborations at Iridescence. While Yamauchi oversees all of the casinos dining venues, Watson is in charge of the entire Iridescence staff. He specializes in contemporary French techniques and Italian and Asian inspired dishes.

Bringing experience and expertise from all over the United States, Watson is excited to be home. His time in Las Vegas and Chicago give him well-rounded skills that will certainly help in his success at Iridescence.

Hired in late August, Watson will have an array of dishes on the menu for fall. Come out and see what the new Chef Derik Watson has to offer!
