Toast is also a great place for lunch and dinner. The Regular Joe burger boasts ½ pound of fresh ground steak, cheddar, and whole grain mustard on challah toast. I get mine with a couple slices of bacon. Or try the turkey cranberry Panini with cranberry chutney and swiss, served on grilled challah.

For dinner, you can't go wrong with Steak frites—tender juicy steak tips served with homemade fries, or the Duck Confit over gnocchi with bacon, wild mushrooms, and teardrop tomatoes. This dish looks and tastes amazing, as crispy/salty duck skin gives way to the succulent meat below.

One day, a group of us came for appetizers. We tried the black truffle risotto balls—which were incredible, some carnita chicken tacos that were nicely portioned and layered with flavors, and the quick fried shrimp in a shredded philo dough coating.

Specialty cocktails include the Polar Bear Martini—a concoction of Stoli, Frangelico and Godiva white liqueur; the blueberry martini— with muddled blueberries, tequila, Patron Citronag, & Prosecco; and my favorite, the Strawberry Basil Martini—which just had the perfect combination of sweet and tart, along with a refreshing basil flavor that nailed it for me.

Try Toast any time of day. You won't be disappointed.
