

Ask Angela

Seeking style advice?
Need a new look?
Experiencing shopper's
block? Email me!

Angela's Eye

...On Metro Detroit's Style

Features

Our Weekly Fave Five

by angela

Wednesday, Nov. 18, 2009

Motown's star-studded gala, Campus Martius lights one up, The Detroit Urban Craft Fair returns (yes!) and, do you know about the Young American Comedy Tour? Each of this week's gig are right in the Motor City itself. Have a looksee.

11/20 Detroit Tree Lighting Ceremony @ Campus Martius Park

The ice rink will be open, the trees are becoming bare and I've been wearing gloves- it must be time for the lights to illuminate Detroit's Campus Martius. Grab your friends and family and head down to this lovely affair boasting Detroit and holiday spirit with skating performances, music from sax legend Alto Reed, Hot Sauce, Bomshel and more from 5 pm 'til midnite. The tree lighting and ceremony is 7 - 8pm.

11/21 Detroit Urban Craft Fair @ The Majestic Theater

One of our favorite not-corny craft fairs around is this one. Literally packed with booths and booths of creative people, products and shoppers, the fourth Detroit Urban Craft Fair is set to be a doozy. This year the crafting kids will come together at the Majestic Theater from 10 am to 7 pm. Stuff stockings with home goods, makeup, clothing, accessories artwork, skateboards and more from Always the Forest, Reware Vintage, Angela Duncan, DETROIT LIVES!, Einfach Skate, Glittersniffer Cosmetics, Nicole Lindner, Wholly Craft! Yum Yum Chum Chum and dozens more. We can't help but get overcome with a warm community vibe at DUCF and we want more than anything to spread the cheer your way. See you there! And bring cash! Free, all ages.

The Few Records 1-Year Anniversary Bash @ The Magic Stick & Majestic Theatre

A Detroit record label boasting all genres of music from hip hop to punk rock? The Few Records' motto happens to be "No Genres, Just Good Music." We're in. Celebrate diversity of Detroit with Carl Craig, Will Sessions, Silverghost, Zoos Of Berlin, Lightning Love & more throughout the Majestic Complex Saturday night. Doors at 9pm, $8 for the whole shebang or $10 after 11:30pm. Support this babes.

11/21 Motown 50th Golden Gala @ The Detroit Marriot Renaissance Center

Ain't no party like a Motown party 'cuz a Motown party don't stop. Motown turned fifty this year and they're celebrating the legacy with star-studded black-tie soiree downtown, hosted by Sinbad. Get out your most festive gear and prepare to party with the best of 'em, from Aretha Franklin, Kid Rock, The Temptations, Stevie Wonder (of which is rumored to perform a duo with The Kid) and more. The event comes complete with top-notch dinner, drinking and dancing in the Renaissance Ballroom, plus a VIP reception and Afterglow for those with Solid Gold and Motown ticket level holders. Tickets are a cool $350 and up and proceeds will benefit the Motown Historical Museum. This is slated to be a pretty amazing night so if you don't go out for the rest of the year for this one night, so be it!

11/25 Young American Comedy Tour the City Theatre \(Inside Hockeytown\)

Get your giggles on at Southfield-native Mike Young's Young American Comedy Tour, stopping in Detroit on Wednesday night. Young, who's written for film, TV and more while residing in Los Angeles all the while hanging with Hollywood people-to-knows including Tobey Maguire to Entourage creator Doug Ellin and show star Kevin Connolly has his sights set on making his Young American Comedy Tour Detroit's own Apollo Theatre. Will he? Go and see for yourself on Wednesday, November 25 at Detroit's City Theatre inside Hockeytown, downtown. You could use some calorie-burning laughter before Thursday's excessive face-stuffing, dontcha think? Tickets are $20.

A-list

Cabin Fever

It's completely okay to be excited for cold(er) weather. That means trips to lofty chateaus, hot cocoa and snowball fights. Stock up on cute and cozy goods before the snow falls!

See complete list

Street Spotlight

Top Chef

He cooks, he meditates and he wears Comme des Garçons. Win.