Valentine's Day meals for two at Bastone

One of Royal Oak's hottest restaurants, Bastone pleases diners with its ambiance and the food of a traditional Belgian brasserie. Traditionally, the brasserie was a place for the neighborhood to go and eat a good meal at a good price. A spacious restaurant with white tiled floors and walls decked in dark wood allow diners to have a beer and appetizers or enjoy an intimate, more time-consuming meal. The food has a real rustic down-home European flare. Executive Chef Casaundra Portalski prepared a sumptuous menu for lovers this Valentines Day.
