August 2009

Café Habana Ann Arbor unveils its first Cuban style beer, presents Habana Especial Lager to accompany Tortas Cubana

What: Café Habana will soon begin pouring its Habana Especial Lager. It's the perfect complement to Café Habana's special Tortas Cubana menu. These Latin-style sandwiches are served on crusty bolillo rolls and nestled among chile dusted yucca chips.

When: August 2009

Hours: Café Habana is open 11 a.m. to 2 a.m. Monday-Friday; 9 a.m. to 2 a.m. Saturday; and 9 a.m. to midnight Sunday.

Where: Café Habana, at 211 E. Washington, Ann Arbor.

The Beer: Habana Especial is a classic Latin style lager that is crisp and refreshing.

The Menu: For a limited time diners can enjoy the following features:

Chili Braised Pork – with bacon, jack cheese, pickled jalapenos, black beans and avocados. $8.50

Shredded Beef – Spiced, braised beef, pickled vegetables, pepper jack cheese, shredded lettuce and chipotle cream. $9

Pulled Chicken – Roasted chicken, pickled onions, black beans, pico de gallo and shredded lettuce. $8.50

Vegetarian – Chipotle spiced jicama and radish slaw, black beans, avocado salsa, queso fresca, shredded lettuce and tomato. $8
