

Monumental Blonde 4.5%

Nick - Compliments the delicious pretzels they gave us. It has a mild taste, a bit watered down. Could pass as an early afternoon beer.

Jim - It's lite with a little bitter aftertaste. Would go great after working in your yard all day.

Dave - It's ok..has kind of a "tart" after taste to it. Doesn't taste bad, just isn't the kind of beer I usually order

Keith - A watered down version of a Coors Lite.

Gordy - Lots of flavor, but no body to it.

Main Street Pilsner 5.5%

Nick - Lite body, a little bit of a musk taste to it. Not my preferred beer and actually preferred the first one over this.

Jim - Not a huge fan of lite beers, tastes like a pilsner with a little kick. It's a smooth hardy pilsner, it doesn't bite ya.

Dave - Kind of a mix between Stella Artois and a Heineken. Not bad, and not what I expected. I would order it again.

Keith - A desert beer. I like it.

Gordy - A little on the bitter side for a Pilsner.

Witface 5.25%

Nick - A murky Miller Chill. You could sit back and drink this all night long.

Jim - I wouldn't mind sitting at the beat while the waves are rolling with this in my hand.

Dave - Not for me.

Keith - Nice lemon refreshing beer that makes me want to look at palm trees.

Gordy - This one's pretty good. Not heavy, good summer beer. Lawn chair or pontoon boat.

Royal IPA 6.75%

Nick - The IPA is a true IPA beer. Very bitter, but adding an orange perfected it.

Jim - I like the IPA. It's that middle ground between the lites and the darks.

Dave - IPA's are always interesting to me. At first taste, i'm never a fan. Halfway through, I end up wanting to order another. It's an IPA true to it's form

Keith - A bit bitter. Not a huge fan, but I could drink it.

Gordy - (passed on the IPA in the order and had a double order of the Witface)

Dubbel Vision 7.5%

Nick - It's a fantastic beer. Easily in the top 3 of all the beers I've ever had....(and I've had a lot)

Jim - The first four beers in front of the Dubbel couldn't have gone quicker. I love the Dubbel! It is yummy and classy.

Dave - I love the Dubbel. I had it first at the Ambassador Design Launch party and I will have it every time I come here :) This is my type of brew!!!

Keith - A thick and fierce cider like beer. I like it.

Gordy - Full body, mouth full of fruit, and really malty, which is a great thing in my book!

Nectar des Dieux Triple 9.0%

Nick - I think it's a really good lite beer. Nice body, definitely a beer I will come back seasonally to have.

Jim - Delicious, kind of like the Dubble turned up to an 11 on the volume scale.

Dave - Ok, with a 9.0%, and the color of this beer, I was just assuming that it wouldn't taste to my liking, but after the first sip it shocked me. This is a really good beer. I like it :)

Keith - Amazing!!!!

Gordy - I loved it! High alcohol content, fully body, full flavor, love it!

Voodoo Brown 6.6%

Nick - This is the beer I'm taking home in a growler. Fantastic body, good flavor, nice undertone of coffee and chocolate.

Jim - Voodoo Brown is Voodoolicious. I'm a java freak and love beer and this combines it. Stellar from the Beer Cellar.

Dave - Smooth and tasty. I loved this beer from start to finish.

Keith - This is a good brew.

Gordy - Nutty, peatty, and.....it's like a wool sweater next to a campfire. Wrap me up in Voodoo Brown.

Strawberry Blonde 6.5%

Nick - One of the best ones out of the 8 tonight, good body, definitely a beer I could drink all night. A nice subtle fruit flavor to it.

Jim - More please :) The subtle strawberry flavor pleases the pallet. I've fallen in love with the strawberry blonde

Dave - This is one of those beers that I could use an entire glass to give the full critique. but I like it.

Keith - This is a mans desert beer. (no ones know what that means)

Gordy - Sweet but not too sweet, full bodied, great desert beer.
