So the end of the night has come and it's time to choose our pic of the night. You're looking a group of guys that would come back anytime of the week to have the Dubbel, but tonight we've picked a different winner. The Voodoo Brown will take the cake and we will now enjoy the close to tonight's Brewskie night.

I'd like to also give a big thanks to Marvin who was our waiter tonight. Brewskie nights are always better when you have someone that delivers a great service with great beer. So, I'm going to stop typing now and present a cheers to Marvin!

Till the next time!
