

P.S., the name is most clever when you pronounce "crepe" properly...shorten the "e"...kind of rhymes with "strap"...get it now?

What Crêpe is open for lunch, dinner, and private parties. It is located at 317 S. Washington Avenue and also offers outdoor patio seating. As added incentive, service industry folks receive 15% off their food bill on Tuesdays, and Royal Oak residents save 10% Tuesday-Friday from 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Their hours are 11:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday-Wednesday, 11:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday-Friday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday. Closed Mondays.

Great post. We really liked our lunch at Cafe Muse and I'm looking forward to trying out What Crepe.

If you're in Ann Arbor, Cafe Felix and Cafe Zola have very good crepes among other things. Sava Cafe has a lengthy list of sweet crepes, but I haven't tried them.

You know what's funny? I was actually just in Ann Arbor a few weeks ago and had some crepes at Cafe Felix! And yes, they were delicious! I'll probably post on it eventually but I need to make another trip out there first...and thanks for added tips of Cafe Zola and Sava Cafe! Ann Arbor is still largely a mystery to me but I'm learning!
