CAFÉ HABANA KICKS UP SALSA DANCING IN ANN ARBOR WITH FREE LESSONS SUNDAY AND THURSDAY NIGHTS

April 17, 2009, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN – Café Habana has been drawing crowds to its Thursday night Salsa dancing lessons since they started offering the free instruction – shortly after opening – in December 2007.

The Ann Arbor restaurant makes the most of its lower level bar and lounge, as DJ Sabor spins authentic Salsa sounds and Dance Instructor Teresa Velez offers free Salsa lessons from 9-10 p.m. every Thursday.

Dancing continues until the venue closes, at 2 a.m. It's common to have a full house, according to Managing Partner Dan Glazer. Café Habana also offers a late Happy Hour on Thursdays. From 10 p.m. to midnight patrons enjoy 1/2 price specials on mojitos and sangria, and $2 beers.

The Thursday salsa event has become such a hit, Café Habana has expanded that concept to include a second night. From 8-9 p.m. on Sundays, Velez teaches free lessons for Salsa Cubano – featuring musical and dance styles from Merengue to Rhumba, Salsa to Reggaeton. Lessons are open to anyone age 21 and older.

Café Habana is located at 211 E. Washington Street in Ann Arbor. Restaurant hours are 11 a.m. to 2 a.m. Monday-Friday; 9 a.m. to 2 a.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. to 12 a.m. Sunday. Visit www.cafehabanas.com/annarbor.
