Clinton Township-based Bultynck & Co. makes accounting personal

October 6, 2009, Clinton Township, MICHIGAN – Founded in 1975 by Hector A. Bultynck, Bultynck & Co. P.L.L.C. opened its doors with the intention to provide the most personalized, accessible and high-quality accounting services in Michigan. That solid foundation remains at the core of the Clinton Township-based company more than three decades later.

With a clientele ranging from individuals to the self-employed and small businesses, Bultynck & Co. serves a variety of industries, including construction, professional services, health care, distributors and non-profit organizations. “Each client is different and has different needs,” said Christopher M. Scott, a partner in the firm. “We address those needs by providing personalized service and remaining accessible to our clients.”

Not all accounting firms share this objective. At Bultynck & Co., staff, managers and even partners are willing to meet one-on-one to counsel clientele. The services include:

- Accounting and Auditing – The firm examines financial statements, offers internal and external reporting as needed, from Compilation to Review to Auditing.
- Tax Planning and Return – Corporate or personal tax returns, sales and payroll taxes, personal property taxes and unemployment taxes.
- Business Valuation – The firm provides a comprehensive financial analysis for those undergoing mergers, acquisitions, divorce settlements and other litigation.
- Payroll Services – The firm provides full services to handle your businesses payroll needs.

Bultynck & Co. clients receive the benefit of having a team strategy available at all times. Whether a company is facing bankruptcy or undergoing an audit, Bultynck & Company’s staff of 12 highly trained employees take a proactive approach to all financial decision-making. The staff remains dedicated to staying on the cutting edge of the industry, completing 80 hours of continuing CPA credits every two years.

Rather than contacting an accountant once a year at tax time, individuals and businesses now require day-to-day services. The economic conditions around Michigan have made highly qualified accounting services more valuable than ever. While some industries are cutting back, others are finding ways to move forward and the valuable assistance of trusted accountants is key in either case. Clients have come to Bultynck & Co. for years, primarily on a referral basis. “We want to see our clients succeed,” said Scott.

Bultynck & Co. is located at 15985 Canal Road in Clinton Township. Call (586) 286-7300 or visit www.bultynck.com.
