National and local fashionistas will be in Royal Oak for a two-day fashion event. Models will hit the runway during "Fashion in Detroit" at the Detroit Zoo from 1-6 p.m. Thursday and Friday. The event is the brainchild of Birmingham designer Joe Faris, who appeared as a contestant on TV's "Project Runway" during its fifth season.

K'Kao Hardin, Faris, photographer Lians of LM Studio, designer Leslie Ann Pilling and Rino of FIGO Salon. Tickets for the runway shows at the zoo are $75 each. An afterglow party, from 8 p.m.-2 a.m. Friday, will take place at Stage 3 Productions, 27500 Donald Court, Warren. Tickets for the party are $50. For more information visit www.fashiondetroit.com.
